

Dear Dancers,

Broadway Dance Center, the ultimate home for dancers in New York City, is proud to present The Professional Semester at BDC, an exciting new program designed for the aspiring professional dancer.

This four-month course is the ideal option for well-trained dancers hoping to launch their professional careers in NYC. Whether you are a graduate of a university dance program, a current student looking to take a semester dancing in the field, a recent high school graduate hoping to broach the dance industry, or a currently working professional looking for an intensive course to hone your skills, The Professional Semester offers the pragmatic coursework you need to establish yourself as a working dancer.

Our comprehensive syllabus includes multi-disciplinary technique classes, practical seminars to educate you on the industry, mock auditions to provide real-world experience, and numerous networking opportunities to secure your footing as a working artist.

We encourage you to apply for this elite program that will, in short, transform you from dance student to dance professional.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Erickson
Director of Educational Programming
